Is Vital, He Says, Both in Time of War and in Peace.

Washington. Aug. 15.—Generous support of schools of all grades during war time is urged by President Wilson in a letter to Secretary Lane today approving the bureau of education's plan for an educational campaign this summer and fall.

"I am pleased to know," says the president's letter, "that despite the unusual burdens imposed upon our people by the war, they have maintained their schools and other agencies of education sa nearly at their normal efficiency. That this should be continued thruout the war and that, in so far as the draf' law will permit, there should be no falling off in attendance in elementary schools, high schools or colleges is a matter of the very greatest importance, affecting both our strength in war and our national welfare and efficiency when the war is over.

BADGE FOR THE BOYS

Medal of Honor to Kansas Youths Who Do Essential Work.

Th hearts of many boys in various parts of Kansas will be gladdened and they can strut proudly before their they can strut proudly before their envious comrades when they receive from the postman the badges of the Beys' Working Reserve, issued today by Com alssioner W. L. Porter, at the request of several county directors. The badge is about the size of a sliver dollar and is of bronze, embossed with the words "Boys' Working Reserve" around the edge and with an eagle holding a shield in the center. Each badge is numbered.

To win one a boy must spend three weeks working at some necessary war weeks working at some necessary war ndustry.

T. R. Allen, who is a private in Supply company, 333 infantry, now in France, has written from everses, in praise of the homeland, the Land of Peace and Plenty. Allen is the son of Mrs. T. F. Allen, 418 Forest avenue, Topeka. He was formerly connected with the Wolff Facking company, and was in the office of the city salesman for eight year. He went to Funston in December and has since been sent to France. He used to be known as the "Packing House Poet," and often wrote verse for the State Journal, published in the sporting columns and elsewhere in the paper.

The following verses have recently been received from him:

I am somewhere, sweetheart, somewhere in the land of sunny France, But my thoughts are ever with you and my dreams are, sweet romance. I am serving light and Country.

I am somewhere, sweetheart, somewhere in the land of sunny France.
But my thoughts are ever with you and my dreams are, sweet romance.
I am serving Right and Country, Hopeful, waiting for the day When our debt to France is settled And we pick and sall away From this place of strife and battle, 'Neath the old Red, White and Blue, To the land of Peace and Plenty.

I am somewhere, mother, somewhere, Near the front lines over here. But I know that you are praying And I feel your presence near. And I'll try to do your teachings Always, where e'er I may be And be worthy of the mother You have always been to me. And I'll soon come salling, mother, Eack, in answer to your prayer To the land of Pence and Plenty And the home you've made so rare.

I am somewhere, father, somewhere
Near that bloody No Man's Land
Where your actions show your makins
And your manhood takes its stand.
Dad, I know you're proud I'm serving.
Should I hesitate to start—
If I shirk to do my duty,
May a builet pierce my heart;
So, if I live I'll be worthy
Of my fing and native land—
That sweet place of Peace and Plenty
And the right to shake your hand.

And the right to same your and.

In a country for away,
But our thoughts are always somewhere,
In the dear old U. S. A.
Be it Kansas or Kentucky,
Texas, Maine or Alabam,
Inst so it's in the borders
of the land of Unicle Sam.
And you'll never find its equal
Anywhere beneath the sky.
It's the land of Peace and Plenty.
There let me be to live and die.

HEAVY PROFITS TAX

Levy on War Profits Will Probably B 80 Per Cent.

Washington, Aug. 15 .- Internal Revenue Collector Roper and Dr. H.S. Adams, of the treasury department, were with the house ways and means committee today working out details of profits and income taxes explained by Secretary McAdoo yesterday.

As a result of McAdoo's appearance before the committee the tax plans which he has been insisting on for more than a month will probably go into the revenue bill with little change.

An eighty per cent tax on pure war

Taking 70 Per Cent of Salmon.
The government is buying 70 per cent of the salmon catch.
The government is taking over the entire output of some canning factories.
Tin is scarce and tinned goods will be high.
Unless women break all records for canning this summer and fall there will be a scarcity of canned goods next winter.
The sugar shortage should not hinder canning in the Lome, according to the food administration for most food can be canned without sugar. Permits to buy sugar for canning will be issued where fruits are putting which absolutely require sugar.
